Cabin Layout and Seating Configuration

The air france 787-9 premium economy cabin is designed to provide a spacious and comfortable environment distinct from both economy and business classes. The Boeing 787-9 Dreamliner typically features a dedicated premium economy section that is strategically located between economy and business cabins, allowing for easier access to lavatories and galleys while maintaining a quieter atmosphere.

Seating Arrangement

The premium economy section on the Air France 787-9 generally features a 2-3-2 seating configuration. This layout optimizes space, offering more width and pitch compared to economy class seats. The arrangement ensures that passengers have direct or near-direct aisle access, enhancing privacy and convenience during the flight.

Cabin Ambiance

Air France uses mood lighting and modern cabin aesthetics on the 787-9 to enhance the passenger experience. The premium economy area is subtly separated by partitions, providing a more exclusive feel without the price tag of business class. The cabin is quieter and less crowded, contributing to a restful environment for travelers on long-haul routes.

Seat Features and Comfort

One of the defining characteristics of the air france 787-9 premium economy class is the superior seating comfort compared to standard economy. Each seat is engineered to maximize ergonomics and passenger well-being.

Seat Dimensions

Seats in premium economy on the 787-9 generally measure approximately 19 inches in width with a pitch of around 38 inches. This extra space allows passengers to stretch out more comfortably and enjoy a more relaxed posture during long flights.

Adjustable Headrests and Recline

Seats come equipped with adjustable headrests that provide neck support, reducing fatigue on extended journeys. The recline function is more generous than economy class, allowing passengers to find their ideal seating position. The footrests and legrests further enhance comfort by promoting better circulation and reducing pressure points.

Additional Comfort Features

- Extra cushioning and lumbar support for improved back comfort
- Ample under-seat storage for personal items
- USB and power outlets for device charging
- Noise-reducing materials incorporated into seat design

In-Flight Entertainment and Connectivity

Entertainment options on the air france 787-9 premium economy are tailored to ensure passengers remain engaged and comfortable throughout the journey. The aircraft is equipped with state-of-the-art systems that rival higher cabin classes.

Personal Screens

Each premium economy seat features a larger personal touchscreen monitor, typically around 11 to 13 inches in size. The screens have high resolution and responsive controls, allowing passengers to browse a wide selection of movies, TV shows, music, and games.

Content Selection

Air France offers a diverse entertainment library that includes international films, documentaries, series, and children's programming. This content is regularly updated to provide fresh options for frequent flyers.

Connectivity Options

Wi-Fi service is available onboard the 787-9, allowing premium economy passengers to stay connected with work or loved ones. Depending on the flight route, passengers can purchase internet packages to browse the web, send emails, or use messaging apps.

Dining Experience in Premium Economy

Air France elevates the culinary experience for premium economy travelers by offering meals that are a step above economy class fare. The airline emphasizes quality, presentation, and variety in its meal service.

Meal Service

Passengers in premium economy receive multi-course meals prepared with fresh ingredients, reflecting French culinary traditions. Meals are served on proper dishware rather than disposable trays, enhancing the dining atmosphere.

Menu Options

The menu typically includes a choice of main courses such as poultry, fish, or vegetarian options, accompanied by salads, bread, and dessert. Special dietary requirements can be accommodated with advance notice.

Beverage Selection

A selection of complimentary wines, spirits, soft drinks, and hot beverages is available. The wine list often features French vintages, contributing to an authentic and enjoyable dining experience.

Additional Amenities and Services

The air france 787-9 premium economy cabin provides a range of extra amenities designed to enhance passenger comfort and convenience throughout the flight.

Priority Boarding and Baggage

Premium economy passengers benefit from priority boarding, allowing them to settle in early and avoid long queues. Additionally, the baggage allowance is more generous than economy class, typically including two checked bags with increased weight limits.

Comfort Kits and Extras

Passengers receive amenity kits containing essentials such as eye masks, earplugs, socks, and toiletries. These kits help improve rest and comfort, especially on overnight flights.

Dedicated Cabin Crew

The premium economy cabin is served by dedicated crew members who focus on attentive service, ensuring that passenger needs are met promptly and professionally.

Booking and Fare Benefits

Choosing air france 787-9 premium economy comes with several advantages beyond the onboard experience. Booking this class offers better value for travelers seeking more comfort at a moderate price increase compared to economy.

Flexible Ticketing

Premium economy fares often include more flexible change and cancellation policies, giving travelers greater peace of mind when plans evolve. This flexibility is particularly valuable for business travelers and those with uncertain itineraries.
