Cabin Layout and Seating Configuration

The Lufthansa 747 400 business class upper deck is renowned for its distinctive and intimate cabin layout. Unlike the main deck, the upper deck offers a smaller, more exclusive environment, typically accommodating around 48 passengers depending on the specific configuration. The seating arrangement is designed to maximize privacy and comfort, making it highly sought after by frequent flyers and business travelers.

Upper Deck Design and Atmosphere

The upper deck of the Boeing 747-400 features a cozy, quieter atmosphere compared to the main deck. Its elevated position above the main cabin reduces noise from the engines and passenger movement below, contributing to a serene travel environment. The cabin's architecture includes a curved ceiling and windows that provide panoramic views, enhancing the overall flying experience.

Seating Configuration

The seating on the upper deck is typically arranged in a 2-2 layout, offering direct aisle access to every passenger. This configuration contrasts with the more common 2-3-2 layout on the main deck, providing increased space and privacy. The 2-2 arrangement minimizes disturbance from neighbors and facilitates easier movement within the cabin.

Seat Features and Comfort

Seats in Lufthansa's 747 400 business class upper deck are designed with both ergonomics and luxury in mind. These seats are widely praised for their spaciousness, adjustability, and advanced features aimed at improving passenger comfort during long-haul flights.

Lie-Flat Seating

One of the standout features of the business class seats on the upper deck is the lie-flat capability. Each seat converts into a fully flat bed, allowing passengers to rest or sleep comfortably on overnight flights. The length of these beds typically exceeds 6 feet, accommodating passengers of various heights.

Seat Controls and Adjustability

The seats come equipped with intuitive electronic controls to adjust recline, lumbar support, and leg rests. Additionally, many seats feature memory settings that allow passengers to save preferred positions. Adjustable headrests and armrests further enhance personalized comfort.

Storage and Privacy

Ample storage compartments are integrated into the seat design, including spaces for personal items, laptops, and small bags. Privacy dividers between seats provide a sense of personal space, which is particularly important in the 2-2 seating layout where passengers are seated side-by-side.

Inflight Entertainment and Connectivity

Entertainment options on the Lufthansa 747 400 business class upper deck are comprehensive, catering to a wide range of passenger preferences. The airline invests heavily in inflight entertainment technology to ensure a pleasant journey.

Personal Entertainment Screens

Each business class seat is equipped with a high-resolution personal entertainment screen. These screens offer an extensive selection of movies, TV shows, music, games, and documentaries. The interface is user-friendly and responsive, allowing passengers to easily browse and select content throughout the flight.

Connectivity and Power Options

Passengers on the upper deck benefit from in-seat power outlets compatible with laptops, smartphones, and other electronic devices. Wi-Fi service is typically available, allowing travelers to stay connected for work or leisure. The connectivity options are especially valuable for business travelers needing to maintain productivity while airborne.

Dining and Beverage Service

Dining in Lufthansa's 747 400 business class upper deck is a highlight of the travel experience. The airline emphasizes high-quality cuisine and attentive service to complement the luxurious environment.

Menu Selection and Meal Quality

The menu features a variety of gourmet dishes prepared with fresh ingredients, often inspired by international and German cuisine. Passengers can expect multiple courses including appetizers, main dishes, desserts, and specialty breads. Seasonal menus and special dietary accommodations are available upon request.

Beverage Options

A wide range of beverages is offered, including premium wines, champagnes, spirits, and non-alcoholic drinks. Lufthansa's sommelier-selected wine list enhances the dining experience, with options that pair well with the meals served on board.

Meal Presentation and Service Style

Meals are served on fine china with quality cutlery and glassware, emphasizing the airline's commitment to luxury. The cabin crew provides personalized attention, ensuring that each passenger's dining preferences and needs are met promptly and professionally.

Additional Amenities and Services

Beyond seat comfort and dining, the Lufthansa 747 400 business class upper deck offers a range of additional amenities designed to enhance passenger convenience and satisfaction.

Priority Boarding and Baggage Handling

Business class passengers on the upper deck benefit from priority boarding, allowing them to settle in early and avoid crowds. Additionally, priority baggage handling ensures that checked luggage is among the first to arrive at the destination, streamlining the travel process.

Lounge Access

Travelers flying business class on Lufthansa's 747-400 have access to exclusive airport lounges before departure. These lounges provide comfortable seating, complimentary food and beverages, Wi-Fi, and business facilities, creating a relaxing environment prior to boarding.

Onboard Amenities

Other in-flight amenities include high-quality amenity kits containing skincare products, eye masks, and other essentials. Noise-canceling headphones are provided to complement the entertainment system and reduce ambient noise, further improving the flight experience.

- Priority check-in and security screening
