Entry and Ticketing Policies

Understanding the entry and ticketing rules for Lincoln Financial Field is crucial for a smooth admission experience. The stadium enforces strict ticket verification processes to prevent fraud and unauthorized access. Attendees must present valid tickets for entry, which can be either physical or digital, depending on the event's ticketing system. It is important to note that tickets are non-transferable unless explicitly authorized by the venue or event organizers.

Ticket Purchase and Validation

Tickets should be purchased only through official channels to avoid counterfeit issues. Once purchased, attendees must ensure their tickets are valid for the specific event date and time. Lincoln Financial Field may require scanning of tickets at multiple checkpoints throughout the stadium to maintain security integrity.

Entry Gates and Admission Times

The stadium has multiple entry gates assigned according to ticket sections. Fans are advised to check their tickets for designated gate information. Gates typically open 90 minutes to two hours before the event start time, allowing sufficient time for security screening and seating. Late arrivals may face limited entry options or delays due to increased security measures.

Bag and Personal Item Regulations

Lincoln Financial Field has detailed policies regarding bags and personal items to enhance safety and streamline entry procedures. The venue enforces a clear bag policy designed to expedite security checks and reduce prohibited item incidents.

Clear Bag Policy

The clear bag policy mandates that only transparent bags made of clear plastic, vinyl, or PVC are permitted. The maximum allowable size is typically 12" x 6" x 12". This policy applies to all bags, including purses, backpacks, and tote bags. Exceptions are made for medically necessary items after proper inspection.

Permitted Personal Items

In addition to clear bags, attendees may bring small clutch bags measuring up to 4.5" x 6.5" without the need to be clear. Other allowed personal items include cell phones, cameras without detachable lenses, and small binoculars. It is advisable to minimize belongings to speed up the security process and avoid confiscation of prohibited items.

Storage and Coat Check

Lincoln Financial Field offers limited coat check services where attendees can temporarily store larger bags or coats not allowed inside. Using these services can be a practical option when carrying items that do not comply with the bag policy.

Prohibited Items and Security Screening

Security at Lincoln Financial Field is a top priority, and the venue maintains a strict list of prohibited items to ensure the safety of all guests. Security screening includes bag checks, metal detectors, and random inspections.

Commonly Prohibited Items

The following items are generally banned from the stadium:

- Weapons of any kind, including firearms, knives, and pepper spray
- Alcohol and illegal substances
- Outside food and beverages, except for medically necessary items

- Large umbrellas and selfie sticks
- Laser pointers and noise-making devices
- Professional cameras and recording equipment without prior approval
- Banners or signs that obstruct views or contain offensive language

Security Screening Procedures

All guests and their belongings are subject to search upon entry. Attendees are encouraged to cooperate with security personnel and follow instructions. Failure to comply with screening procedures can result in denial of entry. The stadium reserves the right to confiscate prohibited items without reimbursement.

Fan Conduct and Behavior Guidelines

Lincoln Financial Field promotes a family-friendly environment and expects all attendees to adhere to a code of conduct that fosters respect and enjoyment for everyone. Disruptive behavior is not tolerated.

Expected Behavior

Fans must refrain from actions such as:

- Using offensive or abusive language
- Engaging in physical altercations or aggressive conduct
- Throwing objects onto the field or into the stands
- Standing in aisles or blocking views unnecessarily
- Entering restricted areas or the playing field

Consequences for Misconduct

Violation of conduct rules may result in immediate removal from the stadium, ejection without refund, and potential banning from future events. The venue cooperates with law enforcement in cases of serious infractions.

Accessibility and Accommodation Rules

Lincoln Financial Field is committed to providing an inclusive experience for guests with disabilities or special needs. The venue complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and offers various accommodations.

Accessible Seating and Services

Designated accessible seating areas are available throughout the stadium, with options for wheelchair users and companion seating. These locations offer clear sightlines and convenient access to amenities.

Assistive Services

The stadium provides assistive listening devices, sign language interpreters upon request, and other accommodations to enhance the experience of guests with disabilities. Requests for special services should be made in advance of the event.

COVID-19 and Health Safety Protocols

In response to ongoing public health concerns, Lincoln Financial Field has implemented specific rules to protect attendees during the COVID-19 pandemic and other health emergencies.

Mask and Vaccination Policies

The venue follows guidelines issued by health authorities, which may include mask mandates and vaccination or testing requirements depending on current conditions. These policies are subject to change and are communicated ahead of each event.

Sanitization and Social Distancing

Enhanced cleaning protocols and sanitization stations are in place throughout the stadium. When applicable, social distancing measures are encouraged to minimize contact and maintain health safety.
